

Legal Matters in Education

This course is designed to give the participant a foundational understanding of various legal issues that impact EMS instructors and educational institutions. Topics include: discrimination, Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA), students records, copyrights, curriculum selection and design, test validation, instructor liability, and training institution liability. In addition to what could be litigious in EMS education, the course will focus on a risk management perspective on each of the legal exposures included.
